But Betting Public Loses Heavily on Stake Events-Cleanup by the Mathews Boys, Who Win Two Races-Jockey Gilber Here-Corrigan to Sell Out His Stable.

Society people turned out in large numbers At Belmont Park yesterday to see the gentle-men riders perform in two stake events. The Amateur Cup and the Meadow Brook Steeplechase have always been red letter events in the estimation of the smart set, so that there was an intense interest in the outcome of each race yesterday. Practically win the Meadow Brook for the reason that he win the Meadow Brook for the reason that he outclassed the other starters and had worked in sensational style. As a result he was the hottest kind of a favorite, society and the public taking even money as if it was an extensive the stepson of Bishop Potter and the owner of Bat, had the mount, but some of the hunting the starter wall better the matter. set and others well posted as to amateur horsemen predicted that Mr. Clark would be lucky to remain in the saddle throughout the Lawrence Waterbury, for instance, wanted to lay 6 to 5 against Bat among his friends, explaining that he did not believe Mr. Clark could do justice to the Meddler gelding. When Mr. Clark received a nasty fall at the paddock jump, therefore, the wiseacres nodded their heads and said, "I told you so." While the defeat of Bat enabled the layers to make a big haul they did not keep all the money as Pete Dailey and My Grace, coupled, were solidly backed at the last moment. Previous winners of the Meadow Brook at Belmont Park were I. E. Widener's Patagonian, John R. lownsend's Game Cock and T. Hitchcock,

When the jockey's board announced that "Mr. Daymon" would ride Antaens in the Amateur Cup there was much curiosity as to the identity of the young rider. A trip to the paddock developed the fact that Antaeus's lockey was Raymond Belmont. Just his own name nobody seemed able to ex-plain, but before the horses reached the post everybody seemed to know who "Mr. Day-mon" was. The Belmont entry was a strong favorite at 2 to 1, while Master of Craft went back to 5 to 2 and Rio Grande receded a point to 4. As the speculation proceeded it was noticed that Bookmaker Bill Cowan "laying" top price against Master of Craft, taking in all sorts of wagers with per-

When the race was over it was the prevailing if Mr. J. Tucker had not kept him under restraint until he saw that Antaeus was heaten. The stable expected to win with Antaeus and so declared. Antaeus, for that matter, carried Black Oak wide coming into the stretch, yet the latter came within a few inches of beating Rio Grande. The success of Rio Grande, by the way, enabled the Matthews boys to clean up a bundle, as they placed a big commission at 4. Not satisfied, they parlayed their winnings on Park View in the last race and had money to burn when the Hamburg filly made good. Previous winners of the Amateur Cup, worth $1,415, including plate, to the winner, were Orly II., The Cricket and Master of Craft.
Eddie McDonald won a nice wager on Tony

Bonero in the fifth event. The Sain colt, who had a pull in the weights, was backed from little Shreve, who never lost his head and made his run at precisely the right moment. The books won heavily on the general result, however, for Rialto was backed from 8 to 5 to 13 to 10, while Red River was lowered half a point to 2. Tony Bonero received fourteen pounds by the scale from Red River, who ran a vastly improved race; and fifteen from Rialto, who, it would appear, is nothing more than a good selling plater.

Because the Whitney stable sold Park View last year and retained Jersey Lightning, a chestnut filly by Hamburg—Daisy F., many showed a marked preference for the latter in the last race although she had never been to the post before. Jack Joyner worked her a half mile in 0:47 2-5 Sunday afternoon over the Belmont track and thought that she was a real good thing. With E. Dugan Jersey Lightning at 2 to 1, which caused Park View to recede from 7 to 5 to 2. Then the Mathews boys and their friends got busy and backed Park View down to 8 to 5. S. J. Lawler and his followers also backed Gowap, a filly by Armeath II., at 3, while Whip Top was played three ways.

When the Whitney filly came out of the paddock, however, her backers were sur-prised to see that she was hame in her near fore leg. Some of them, getting cold feet, hedged by betting on Park View, while others, believing that the Whitney filly would be all right by the time she reached the barrier, stood pat. Jersey Lightning proved to be very green, swerving all over the track in such a way that she had no chance to beat Park View, who hugged the inner rail at all stages. But Jersey Lightning will not be forgotten the next time she goes. H. P. Whitney was not on hand to see his two-year-old Sandpiper, by Hamburg-Kildeer, win the second race. But his brother Payne Whitney was there and waxed enthusiastic when the popular colors came home in triumph. Trainer Joyner did not offer much encouragement to those who asked him about Sandpiper, saying that while the youngster had worked well he did not think much of his chances. Joyner end of the grand stand, and when Sandpiper rushed past him in the lead he rooted so hard and cried out in so much excitement that those near him had a good laugh. Sandpiper, who ran coupled with Xebec, a son of Hamburg—Xela, opened at 4 and went up to 5. The Pippin was a well backed favorite at 7 to 2, while Gliding Belle got a liberal show play. A. B. Spreckels's Torbellino, a colt by Solitaire II.—Sevens, was a hot tip started two colts in this event, Connaught Ranger, by Yankee-Ilethyia, and Clock-work, by Ogden-Set Fast, but neither was ready for a hard race.

Lad of Langden came to life in the first race at odds of 20 to 1 and thereby caused nuch comment. When he started the last time he was a public choice, but was beaten horse and Owner Watkins was said to have cleaned up. The success of Lad of Langden incidentally caused the public to drop a arge amount on Aimee C. The Watercolor lly was backed from 5 to 2 to 8 to 5 and er owner, Frank J. Farrell, told his friends that it was only a question of getting her away from the barrier. Garner, who had the mount, was scored by many for not putting up a stronger finish in the last furong or so, for he seemed to be asleep when Lad of Langden rushed up. The start killed the chances of Pretension in this event and also burned up many wagers placed across $49 boards. Big Ben, Fleming, Corncob. woke Marrs and Tommy Waddell were all well backed to show.

There was much speculation in the ring on the outcome of the six found glove contest between Terry McGovern and Spike Robson of Enkland, which will take place at the National A. C. in East Twenty-fourth street to-night. McGovern has many friends the turf, but those who were willing to et on his chances found that Robson was HARLEM REGATTA ENTRIES. GENTLEMEN JOCKBYSSHOW OFF Columbia University and New York A. C.

Will Meet in Senior Eights.

The entry list for the forty-second annual regatta of the Harlem Regatta Association, to be held on the Speadway course next Saturday, was made known before a special meeting of the organization list night. While the entry is not as strong as last year, it is good enough to warrant some first blass racing. enough to warrant some first class racing. In all a string of sixty-two individual entries was read out by Secretary Maroucek. The bulk halled from the Harlem River and very few came from out of town. Philadelphia sent three entries—a four and sculler from the Vesper B. C. and a four from the Crescent B. C. Buffalo sent two entries and Newark one. The other out of town entry is from the Durham Club of New Haven, which is Yale University, in the junior doubles—A. P. Coates and A. H. Livingston being the Elis to supply the sinews of war. It is a long time since Yale has had an entry in the Harley results.

to supply the sinews of war. It is, a long time since I ale has had an entry in the Harlem regatta.

Only two eights entered for the senior shells—Columbia University and the New York A. C.—but here quality will make up for what is lacking in quantity. It will no doubt be the race of the day. Another senior event of high interest will be the single sculls. Durando Miller of the New York A. C. heads the list and he will have a stout opponent to deal with this time in Fred Shepheard of the Seawanhaka B. C. Others down for the race are W. Mehrhoff, Nassau B. C.; H. C. Scrymser, Staten Island B. C.; Fred Friessell, Metropolitan B. C., and Thomas McClee, Ravenswood B. C.

The association singles attracted five entries in R. I. Smith, Vesper B. C., Philadelphis, Victor Clement, Metropolitan B. C.; John J. Ryan, Harlem R. C.; Robert Randy, Wahnetah B. C., and Frank Shes, Sheepshead Bay R. C. Billy Aman of the Mutual R. C. of Buffalo is nominated for the veterans singles and there are four other old stagers ready to oppose him. One of these, E. Carney of the Institute Boat Club of Newark, holds the agerecord by a big margin, for he has been rowing for more then forty years.

The higgest entry from any single organization came from the Metropolitan R. C., with a total of seven, while the New York A. C. and the Nonparell R. C. were a tie for second place with five each. The leading entry among the events was handed in for the junior singles, there being seven in ali. For the intermediate eight shells the crews are Columbia University, New York University and the Union B. C.

The junior four gigs filled well with five crews—Harlem R. C., Wahnetah B. C. of Philadelphia, and Columbia University.

The Atalanta B. C., champion crew of 1889-90, will give an exhibition on the course showing how lightly the hand of time has handled the warriors. They are H. P. Cashion, bow; G. K. Storm, 2; J. H. Chambury, 3; B. Van Clief, 4; C. A. Limfack, 5: Fred Freeman, 6; John Welden, 7; M. T. Quigley, stroke, and Edward J. Byrne, coxswain.

PETE DAILEY, MR. SMITH UP, WINS MEADOW BROOK.

Blo Grande, Mr. Kerr in the Saddle, Cap tures Amateur Cup—Narrow Escape for F. Ambrese Clark—Belmont's Son Rides Antseup—Lad of Langdon Wins.

Five heavily played favorites were defeated at Belmont Park yesterday afternoon in the presence of nearly 18,000 spectators. The stake features, the Amateur Cup and the Meadow Brook Steeplechase, afforded the gentlemen riders a chance to hold forth, but in each instance the public choice went wrong. F. Ambrose Clark had a narrow escape from being trampled to death in the steeplechase. He had the leg up on his Meddler gelding Bat, a hot even many favorite, but at the paddock jump Bat stumbed when running close to the pacemakers and Mr. Clark was hurled on his head directly under the feet of several horses. He wriggled out of danger, however, and escaped with a few scratches.

Mr. Courtlandt II, Smith, mounted on his jumper Pete Dalley, couped with My Grace at 11 to 5, proved an easy winner of the event, as he rolled home eight lengths in front of W. R. Grace's Ell, 15 to 1, with J. Lynch, a professional, in the saddle. Mr. W. C. Hayes, riding his mare Flying Machine, 12 to 1 after making some of the pace, got home in third place, badly beaten, yet a head in front of My Grace, Mr. J. O'Brien up. The course, almost two and a half miles, was covered n 5:43 3-5.

The finish for the Amateur Cup, a highweight selling event, at a mile, was a heart breaker. August Belmont's pair, Antens and Black Oak, ruled the choice at 2 to 1, the owner declaring to win with Antæus. The latter was ridden by "Mr. Daymon," who was really Raymond Belmont, a son of the Jockey Club's chairman, while Mr. J. Tucker latter was ridden by "Mr. Daymon," who was really Raymond Belmont, a son of the Jockey Club's chairman, while Mr. J. Tucker rode Black Oak. When the barrier went up the Belmont coits rushed to the front, Black Oak setting the pace to the middle of the far turn, where, under a pull, he allowed Antæus to go to the front. Coming into the stretch Antæus looked like a sure winner, but he began to bear out and young Belmont went to the whip as Mr. Dion Kerr challenged on the rait with Rio Grande, 4 to 1.

Then it was that Mr. J. Tucker, seeing that Antæus was beaten, put the whip to Black Oak, with the result that the finish was so close that many thought Black Oak won by a head. But the judges placed Rio Grande first, with Black Oak in the place, a length and a half before Antæus. Master of Craft, 5 to 2, with Mr. J. O'Brien up, got off poorts and never had a chance. The mile was fun in 1:43 1-5.

There was a big upset in the first race, a highweight selling event at six and a half furlongs, main track, when after making nearly all the running Frank J. Farrell's filly, Aimee C., 8 to 5 favorite, weakened and R. E. Watkins's Lad of Langden, a 20 to 1 shot, coming from behind, beat her half a length in a drive in 1:20 3-5. Corncob, 10 to 1, landed in third place, a length and a half back. Pretension, 4 to 1, was practically left at the barrier.

Under a fierce drive from E. Dugan, H. P. Whitney's Bandpiper, coupled with Xebec at 5 to 1, won the second gace for two-year-olds, four and a half furiongs straightaway, by a half a length. He led all the way. The Newcastle Stable's The Pippin, 7 to 2 favorite, was also under the lash, to take the place by half a length from W. F. Shulte's Gliding Belle, 6 to 1, who was placed third by a head in spite of the fact that many close observers near the finish line declared that P. J. Rainey's Soll, 15 to 1, was third by at least a length. The time was 0:52 3-5.

C. R. Fleischmann's Tony Bonero, 10 to 1, after following the pace in the handicap at six furlongs to the head of the st raced him into submission. The time was 1:13.

W. F. Mathew's Park View, 8 to 5 favorite, made all the running in the last race for three-year-pld fillies, one mile, and won rather easily by a length and a half in 1:39 3-5. H. P. Whitney's Jersey Lightning, 2 to 1, who was lame going to the post, ran a bang up race and beat H. B. Duryea's Whip Top, 8 to 1, by eight lengths for the place. James Caffrey's Gowan, 3 to 1, was poorly ridden. E. Dugan rode a winner and two seconds. The books did not make an extensive clean up as five Cubs Win From the New Yorks in the Tenth Inning—But Mathewan Out.

Pitchers suffered in the second game between the New Yorks and the Cubs in Chicago yesterday, and the New York pitchers—at least the New York team—suffered the more. The New Yorks were beaten in a ten inning game and Mathewson and Pilester were driven to the bench. The Philadelphias shut out St. Louis and the Pittsburgs downed Boston in a game in which all the scoring was done in one inning. The results: The Clevelands are now crowding the New CHICAGO, May 25.—Chicago won a wild, weird ten inning game from New York to-day, five pitchers suitering and the battle ending in the dark when Tinker killed one of Wiltze's fast deliveries. The New Yorks started briskly. Shannon walked and Tenney forced him. Evers made a bad fumble on Doulin's grounder and Seymour's long the Yorks started briskly. Shannon walked and Tenney forced him. Evers made a bad fumble on Doulin's grounder and Seymour's long the Yorks started briskly. Shearnon Evers hit into left, Sheckard sacrificed and Schulte drove to deep left for a home run. Two more hits were made, but desperate stops by Bridwell and Mathewson saved further scoring. The second was a woeful inning. Mogan singled, Pflester popped out and Bridwell, a double play in hand, fumbled Evers's roller. Sheckard, by grace of the umpire, walked, a row following which ended in McGraw fleeing to the clubhouse. Here a foul tip dislocated Breanahan's thumb, Needham going in. Schulte was easy, but Chance hit so flercely into centre that three runs came home.

In the third Shannon, Donlin, Seymour and Needham all swatted earnestly. The first three scored and Brown went to the slab, a double play stopping the excitement. Malarkey went to work for New York and the Cubs were blanked in their half. Then peace prevailed till the seventh. Here, with one gone, Bridwell sent a double to right, Malarkey singled and Shannon smote with great vigor. A single by Tenney was followed by a two bagger from Donlin's stick and three runs were registered.

Then the Cubs came right back. Evers was passed. Sheckard and Schulte walloped, Seymour got Chance's fly and pulled off a double play on Sheckard and Schulte walloped, Seymour got Chance's fly and pulled off a double play to sheckard and Schulte walloped. The tenth. Slagle drew a pass. Moran sacrificed. Thinker let drive at a high curve and the ball is supposed to be going yet—at least Seymour never saw it as it passed over him. The score:

The Philadelphis Nationals have shut out opponents four times on the present trip.

The Washingtons made a total of only four runs off of the Detroit pitchers in the series just finished. mished.

One detail in which Walsh had it on Manning yesterday was that of control. The Brooklyns whacked a strong team in clever style one day, then lost to a weak one.

It is not reasonable to suppose that it is a mere coincidence that Hurst is forced to put the players of cvery team which visits New York out of the game for kicking.—Washington Pesi. The only visiting players Rurst has put out of the game for kicking here there has put out of the game for kicking here betroit players. and they deserved all they got.

In the sixth inning the Sox set out to get runs by more positive means. Sullivan singled and Tannehill scored him with a ripping two bagger to left. Parent grounded to Ball, who had one more error left in his supply. This time it took the form of a wild throw to Chase, and Tannehill scored. New York's misplays were nothing if not costly. One base on balls and clean hitting flushed a bevy of five runs for the Chicagos in the seventh. Pat Dougherty walked for a starter. Jones, Davis, Donohue and Sullivan injected bingles of the purest alloy, Sullivan's a three bagger, into the festivities.

The New Yorks made a stand in the eighth, which did not jeopardize Chicago's lead much but which woke up the big crowd of Monday rooters. There was as much shouting as though the New Yorks were winning when an error by Dopohue, a base on balls to Hemphill and hits by Chase, Stahl and Conroy drove three runs over the dish in a cluster. final—Other Results.

F. B. Alexander and E. P. Larned reached the semi-final brackets in the singles tournament for the lawn tennis championship of Long Island yesterday in the matches proceeding on the courts of the Kings County L. T. C., Brooklyn avenue and President street. Larned got his piace by beating his clubmate, C. F. Watson, Jr., in streight sets, 7—5, 7—5, in the third round. The match was stubbornly fought.

Alexander came through by defeating G. F. Touchard, 6—0, 8—6. This was worth seeing, the second set chiefly so. Touchard displayed a stretch of the brilliant play for which his two seasons on local courts have been noted. Alexander said after the match that he had an idea for a while in the second set that Touchard was going to get it. Alexander said Touchard was playing fine tennis the second set.

In the first round the default registered against Dean Mathey was reopened and he was permitted to play E. P. Larned. The latter won. Then he went on to play Watson, as the result of his second round match against Reimer stood. Larned has to play the winner of the match between H. S. Roberts and H. J. Mollenhauer to decide the upper semi-final. Alexander will meet the winner of the match between H. S. Roberts and H. L. Westfall—A. L. Williston match for the lower semi-final.

In the doubles play Alexander and Hackett, the national champions, got through to the semi-final round. The summarry:

FIRST ENTRIES FOR TRYOUTS. Yale and Cornell Will Be Strongly Represented in the Games on June 6.

A big batch of entries was handed in yesterday for the Olympic team tryouts to be held at Philadelphia on June 6. Yale University sent its entire track and field team, or at least those of the squad thought to have a chance. Cornell sent in the names of six a chance. Cornell sent in the names of six of the best athletes at Ithaca. The names of the men from Boston also arrived. To judge by the men now entered the tryout meet will be a hummer and there will be some stiff contests in the majority of the events. In order that a fair chance shall be given to athletes with any pretensions to first class form the Olympic committee will keep the entry list open until June 1. Following are the entries of Yale, Cornell and Boston:

100 Meters—Stevens, Butter and Cary, Yale, Eaton, Boston.

The De Witt Clinton team took second place, making an excellent score of 245 out of a possible 250. The Manual Training team scored 247 last Saturday, winning the match and breaking the record. The De Witt Clinton and Bryant second teams each made scores of 232 yesterday. Curtis High School took the prize for second teams with a score of 236.

The shooting in this year's match was a great improvement over that of last year, as shown by the average score, which is much higher, and by the large number of perfect scores, only one of which was made last year. Burns and Ehrlich of Morris, Smith, Massoneau and Hickerson of Manual, Austriah of Stuyvesant, J. S. Hubbard, Brown, and P. G. Hubbard of De Witt all made the highest possible score, 50. The De Witt Clinton team took second place.
